For Clerk. S. J. SHEPLER.

For Treasurer. T. A. McCLEAREY. For Register of Deeds,

For Coroner, M. H CLEMENTS.

For Surveyor, N. B. BLANTON. For Commissioner 1st, Dist. H. C. THOMPSON. For Judge 16th. Judicial Dist.

Guiteau's clothes are shabby, but will probably last him as long as he lives-they ought to.

The effort being made to con- ably has a long life of usefulness vince people that Rouse is a before him. He can afford to Democrat, won't win. The fact wait "until his beard be grown" that he split his ticket to accom- before demanding of the people modate his friends of different of Barbour county the office of politics last fall is not good evi- treasurer. dence of his political orthodoxy .

Our candidate for Sheriff, Wm. Lindsey, is a man whose acts will ise of good things for the readers bear investigation. He is well of that paper hereafter, known throughout the county and is appreciated by those who like a fair, square, honest man. So far as his honesty, capacity or amine our stock before you buy courage is concerned, there is no elsewhere. question.

The gentleman who so creditably represents this county. in the legislature, seems to think it excessively funny that the Democratic convention should have reccommended Mr. Blanton, who is a Greenbacker, for the office of Surveyor- Perhaps Geo "didn't see it"so plainly when he was MONUMENTS, HEAD & FOOT canvassing with "Lawyer Red."

The Cresset, in last week's issue, has something to say of S. J. Shepler as a standing candidate etc. The nomination of the Judge for county clerk was unsolicited dot. Remember, we will not be un by him, and it was only at the earnest request of good men of both parties, that he consented to accept the nomination. The people know him, trust him, and will elect him.

This campaign thus far has been one of decency in this county. Candidates have not been denounced as hars or thieves, unfit to associate with decent men, but have been treated friendly and with candor, Much has been left unsaid by the INDEX, that some of our subscribers thought should appear in its columns. But we believe the people know the candidates well and will decide justly between them.

Since the commencement of the canvass, we have not heard the charge of dishonesty or incapacity against John Chapin. But it has been urged that the transfer of a county treasurer to the office of county clerk is in bad taste and might result in great damage to the county. The one office is intended as a check upon the other, which good intention will be defeated in case of Chapin's election. We call the attention of voters to this point, and ask if we are not right.

To the Index :- The friends of Wallace Rouse claim that if he is elected, he will not deposit the funds of the county with his present employers but with McNeal Bros. Does that help the matter

We give it up. Mr. McClearey. if elected, will deposit the funds of the county with T. A. McClearey, county treasurer. The law does not contemplate that the county funds will be deposited with any private person, bank or corporation-no matter how solvent they may be.

We suppose that the Republiean organ this week will "pitch into" Judge Shepler in the same manner that it did last fall. The result of the election [then should have taught those warriors that nothing is gained by that kind of a fight. Notwithstanding the heaviest guns were pointed at A full line of everything always him, he received the largest vote of any man on the ticket. As we stated last week, his career as a citizen and record as an officer is before the people open to public Repairing inspection. Ilia style may not suit a class of political dandies who assume to create public sentiment in this county, but for a plain matter of fact working people, he will do very well.

We do not believe that Mr. Rouse ought to be elected treasurer of this county, and while saying this, do not wish to be understood as insinuating that he is dishonest or incapa ble of attending to the business in which he is engaged. On the contrary, he is an accomplished salesman, and possesses the confidence of his employers who are doing an ex-
